Dear Parents,

What a super week we have had. World Book Day celebrations were wonderful yesterday, thank you to everyone who participated from large costumes, to pj's, to normal clothes- at the end of the day, it is all about the books! All the children enjoyed sharing books over the day and a little treat of hot chocolate and biscuits along the way. One of the highlights was the buddy reading session, which all the children really enjoyed. It was library day as well so all of the children went up to the library and got their next two books, thank you to Mr and Mrs Walker for helping out today!
